Fall: AM18 (ECR) AM19 (ECR), AM21 (ECR), AM24 (EPP), AM25 (ECR),

A. whereas LGBTIQ+ rights are fundamental rights and checks and balances as regards the rule of law and democracy are crucial for the protection of LGBTIQ rights; (AM 15 Körner and others) whereas the safety and dignity of LGBTIQ+ people is the safety and dignity of all of us; (AM 14 Rapporteur)

B. whereas the right to equal treatment and non-discrimination is a fundamental right enshrined in the Treaties and in the Charter, and should be fully respected;

C. whereas equality and the protection of minorities are among the EU values enshrined in Article 2 TEU;

C a (new). whereas Article 21 TFEU establishes that every citizen of the Union shall have the right to move and reside freely within the territory of the Member States; (AM 16 Rapporteur)

C b (new). whereas all Member States have assumed obligations and duties under international law and the EU Treaties to respect, guarantee, protect and fulfil fundamental rights; (AM 17 Rapp)

D. whereas progress has been made in protecting and promoting LGBTIQ+ rights in some Member States;

E. whereas discrimination based on actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, and sex characteristics (SOGIESC) persists throughout the EU;

F. whereas developments in some Member States have shown that progress on LGBTIQ+ rights cannot be taken for granted;

F a (new). whereas in 2022, the European Commission, together with the European Parliament and fifteen Member States, referred Hungary to the Court of Justice of the European Union over violations of LGBTIQ rights; (AM 20 Renew)

F b (new). whereas Latvia should join the LGBTIQ Equality Subgroup set up under the High-Level Group on Nondiscrimination, Equality and Diversity - as the last Member State to do so after Cyprus recently expressed its interest - with the goal to enhance implementation of the LGBTIQ strategy in all Member States; (AM 89 Renew)

F c (new). whereas Parliament condemned, in the strongest possible terms, discriminatory laws, policies and practices against LGBTIQ+ people, such as the 'Anti-Homosexuality Bill' in Uganda; (AM 127 EPP)

F d (new). whereas on 30 November 2023 Russia's Supreme Court banned the 'international LGBT movement' declaring it an extremist organisation; whereas this decision is a severe attack against LGBTIQ+ people and human rights defenders in Russia and it will have a grave impact on their situation; whereas LGBTIQ+ people in China have experienced increased harassment and censorship, including online; (AM 27 Renew)

G. whereas 2022 has seen the most important increase in violence against LGBTIQ+ persons in the past decade⁸

H. whereas the growth of anti-rights rhetoric, including by elected politicians, (AM 22 Rapporteur) has contributed to creating a hostile environment for LGBTIQ+ persons and (AM 23 Greens) those advocating LGBTIQ+ rights;

I. whereas building safe, free, inclusive societies for LGBTIQ+ persons implies addressing multiple and intersectional manifestations of discrimination, exclusion and violence;

J. whereas LGBTIQ+ persons face discrimination and violence worldwide;

K. whereas the European Union has made commitments to promote and protect LGBTIQ+ rights worldwide;

K a (new). whereas all forms and manifestations of hatred and intolerance, including hate speech and hate crime, are incompatible with the Union values of human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, rule of law and respect for human rights, as enshrined in Article 2 of the TEU; (AM 26 S&D)

K b (new). whereas the so-called 'conversion practices' can rely on different methods such as electroshocks, taking hormones or exorcism rites that amount to practices of torture; and it is estimated that 2% of LGBTIQ+ persons in the EU have been actually submitted to the so-called 'conversion practices' and 5% have been offered conversion, although the real figures could be much higher⁹; (AM 28 S&D)

~~L. whereas Parliament's LGBTIQ+ Intergroup has called for a report on the implementation of the LGBTIQ Equality Strategy 2020-2025; (Rapporteur)~~

CA 3 - Main conclusions - Paragraphs 1 to 5

Covered: AM29 (Rapp), AM30 (Renew), AM33 (Renew),, AM34 (Renew),, AM35 (Renew),, AM36 (Rapp), AM38 (Greens), AM 82 (Greens), AM39 (Rapp), AM40 (Rapp), AM 41 (Rapp), AM42 (Greens), AM146 (S&D)

Fall: AM31 (ECR), AM37 (ECR), AM32 (ECR)

Main conclusions

1. Welcomes the Commission's LGBTIQ Equality Strategy 2020-2025, adopted by the European Commission on 12 November 2020 (COM(2020)0698), (AM 29 Rapporteur) and its recent Progress Report on the implementation of the Strategy; (AM 30 Renew) Notes the European Commission's commitment to support Member States in their implementation of the Strategy, expresses deep concern about the disparity of openness to the Strategy between the Member States; (AM 35 Renew) Welcomes the efforts by the European Commission to advance equality for LGBTIQ+ persons in all fields included in the Strategy; regrets that certain key actions originally envisaged by the Commission have not been implemented so far; (AM 34 Renew)
2. Acknowledges the progress made for the implementation of the LGBTIQ Equality Strategy 2020-2025 while stressing that real equality for LGBTIQ+ persons in the EU is still far away from the actual reality; (AM 33 Renew) Expresses concern about the discrimination and violence suffered by LGBTIQ+ persons in the EU and their consequences for the full enjoyment of free and dignified lives;
3. Regrets Deplores (AM 38 Greens) the fact that the horizontal anti-discrimination directive has been blocked in the Council since 2008; considers that any update of this proposal by the Commission must build on Parliament's position, address intersectional discrimination and explicitly prohibit discrimination on any combination of grounds listed in the Charter; regrets that the Council has ignored these requests and urges the Council to integrate them in its mandate and to take all appropriate actions to fight discrimination in the EU; (AM 36 Rapporteur) (AM 82 Greens)
- 3 a (new). Calls for including all the grounds of sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression and sex characteristics in the EU anti-discrimination legislation, based on a broad interpretation of the grounds of sexual orientation and sex and the principle of equality between women and men set forth in the Treaties; Notes that this will ensure legal certainty and comprehensiveness of the protection of LGBTIQ+ people; (AM 39 Rapporteur, AM 146 S&D)
4. Underlines that LGBTIQ+ persons in Europe are disproportionately affected by homelessness and precarious housing conditions, due to discrimination, poverty and socio-economic exclusion; expresses concern with the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic, the cost of living and housing crisis, as well as of the lack of public investment, over the lives of LGBTIQ+ people; Reiterates that housing is a fundamental right; (AM 40 Rapporteur)

5. Regrets ~~the fact~~ that despite EU legislation prohibiting discrimination based on sexual orientation in employment and occupation, (AM 41 Rapporteur) LGBTIQ+ persons still face barriers to accessing employment, in particular (AM 42 Rapporteur) decent jobs; expresses that LGBTIQ+ rights are workers' rights; (AM 41 Rapporteur)

CA 4 A - Paragraphs 6

Covered: AM43 (Rapp),

Fall: AM44 (EPP), AM45 (Renew)

6. Underlines that discrimination on grounds of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, expression and sex still has a significant impact on LGBTIQ+ people's physical, mental and sexual health and well-being; regrets that LGBTIQ+ people still face discrimination in accessing healthcare; Underlines that access to healthcare should be offered as a universal, free and timely public service; (AM 43 Rapporteur)

CA 4 B - Paragraphs 6 a(new) - 6 e(new) and 7

Covered: AM46 (Rapp), AM47 (Renew) AM48 (Rapp), AM 49 (Rapp), AM50 (Rapp), AM53 (Rapp)AM54 (Renew) (partially), AM55 (Rapp), AM56(EPP) AM 61 (Renew)

Fall: AM51 (EPP), AM52 (ECR),

6 a (new). Emphasises the need for an inclusive and safe education for LGBTIQ+ persons in all Member States, especially for LGBTIQ+ youths; (AM 47 Renew)

6 b (new). Regrets that LGBTIQ+ people still face discrimination in some Member States regarding access to social protection, social security, access to the supply of goods and other sectors or services; (AM 46 Rapporteur)

6 c (new). Regrets that older LGBTIQ+ people are particularly affected by the lack of LGBTIQ+ rights, further exacerbating a sense of social isolation and barriers to accessing to essential services; Highlights that the older LGBTIQ+ population is often neglected in the design of public policies and of projects, including in those tailored for LGBTIQ+ people; Underlines that the older LGBTIQ+ population is disproportionately affected by poverty and the lack of access to decent housing and adequate care networks; Underlines that an European LGBTIQ Freedom Zone cannot leave anyone behind; (AM 48 Rapporteur)

6 d (new). Stresses that care services for LGBTIQ+ people shall always ensure the dignity, independence, autonomy, wellbeing and participation in social life of those receiving it, including the possibility of home-care and of community-based services; (AM 49 Rapporteur)

6 e (new). Notes that LGBTIQ+ people in rural, peripheral and outermost regions face particular challenges and barriers to their access to essential services; (AM 50 Rapporteur)

7. Expresses deep concern over LGBTIQ+ persons needing to exercise their right to *request asylum in the European Union; (AM 53 Rapporteur) expresses concern that trans and intersex persons face even more obstacles in the process of applying for asylum; Underlines the importance that the situation of LGBTIQ+ persons is taken into account when designing the Union's asylum and migration policy; (AM 56 EPP)

7 a (new). Expresses deep concern with the rise of hate speech, hate crimes and violence against LGBTIQ+ persons, including in online platforms; express concern with the violation of where it could lead to breaching privacy rights of users of LGBTIQ+ content; (AM 61 Renew) Recalls the need for preventive and protective public policy regarding bias motivated hate speech, hate crimes and violence against LGBTIQ+ persons; Recognises there is an underreporting of cases of hate speech and crimes against LGBTIQ+ people, due to a lack of trust and confidence in public authorities to tackle such crimes; (AM 55 Rapporteur)

CA 5 - Paragraphs 8 to 11

Covered: AM 58 (Rapp), AM 60 (Greens) AM 62 (EPP) AM 65 (Greens) AM 67 (Rapp), AM 69 (Rapp), AM 70 (Renew)

Fall: AM 57 (ECR), AM 59 (EPP), AM 63 (ECR) AM 64 (EPP), AM 66 (ECR), AM 68 (ECR)

8. Condemns the fact that the rise of far-right political forces has motivated an increase in the stigmatisation, harassment, violence (AM 60 Greens) and persecution of LGBTIQ+ persons and LGBTIQ+ civil society organisations and activists; condemns the increasing scapegoating of the LGBTIQ+ community and the harmful designation of the promotion of LGBTIQ+ rights as an 'ideology'; (AM 58 Rapp)

9. Underlines the need for the EU to address the situation of LGBTIQ+ persons in formal negotiations with candidate countries and to support all enlargement countries to close legislative gaps and secure fundamental rights of LGBTIQ+ persons; (AM 62 EPP)

10. Insists that the EU needs to take further steps towards the legal recognition of same-sex marriages and partnerships, and of rainbow parents, including of trans parents, and to legal gender recognition, to ensure the best interests of children in line with CJEU and ECtHR case-law; (AM 65 Greens)

10 a. Highlights the challenges faced by trans, non-binary and intersex people in the EU, particularly around their socioeconomic and sociodemographic status; underlines how the absence or barriers to accessing legal gender recognition procedures in Member States violate the rights and hinder the aspirations of trans and non-binary and intersex people across the Union; (AM 67 Rapp)

11. Insists that rainbow families have a right to free movement in the EU, and the children of rainbow families should not be discriminated against in acquiring EU citizenship;

11 a (new). Expresses concern that facial recognition and profiling technology might create greater risks for LGBTIQ+ people, in particular for trans and non-binary and intersex people; (AM 69 Rapp)

11 b (new). Regrets the lack of a cohesive overview of EU funding for LGBTIQ+ equality under the different programmes supporting the Strategy; (AM 70 Renew)

CA 6 - Paragraphs 12 and 13

Covered: AM 72 (Rapp), AM 73 (Greens), AM 74 (Rapp) AM 75 (Renew), AM 76 (S&D)

Fall: AM 71 (ECR), AM 77 (ECR)

12. Emphasises the urgency for the Commission to ~~facilitate~~ ensure (AM 73 Greens) access to funding for civil society organisations (CSOs) working for the human rights of LGBTIQ+ persons in the Union and in third countries; notes that adequate and flexible funding to CSO's advocating for LGBTIQ+ rights is an essential enabling condition for the protection and promotion of LGBTIQ+ rights, in the European Union and in third countries; (AM 72 Rapp)

12 a. Welcomes EU initiatives directed at protecting LGBTIQ+ human rights defenders and at facilitating their work of defending fundamental rights; emphasizes the need for the EU to continue tackling the stigmatisation, intimidation, harassment of LGBTIQ+ human rights defenders across the world: (AM 74 Rapp) Welcomes the Commission's support of LGBTIQ+ activists in Ukraine, especially through the "direct award" modality since the start of the Russian invasion and war of aggression against Ukraine; (AM 75 Renew)

13. Recalls that European humanitarian aid should be gender-, age-, protection- and LGBTIQ+-sensitive, while taking into consideration intersectionality as a cross-cutting principle, and in line with humanitarian principles; (AM 76 S&D)

CA 7 - Paragraphs 15 to 17

Covered: AM 79 (Rapp), AM 83 (Rapp), AM 84 (Greens) partially

Fall: AM 78 (ECR), AM 81 (ECR)

15. Calls for the EU and the Member States to ensure the adequate and meaningful mainstreaming of LGBTIQ+ rights across all EU policies; calls for policies to cover grounds of multiple and intersectional discrimination which can be based on, among other grounds, socio-economic status, age, race, religion, actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression and sex characteristics or disability; calls for policies to consider the particular contexts of rural, peripheral and outermost regions; (AM 79 Rapp)

16. Calls for the EU and the Member States to include SOGIESC in the grounds taken into account in the EU anti-discrimination legislation, in line with Parliament's mandate on the proposal for a directive on standards for equality bodies¹⁰;

¹⁰ Commission proposal of 7 December 2022 for a directive of the European Parliament and of the Council on standards for equality bodies in the field of equal treatment and equal opportunities between women and men in

17. Calls for the EU and the Member States to involve LGBTIQ+ persons in policy-making, including in the design and implementation of socio-economic and housing and education policies (AM 84 Greens); calls on the Member States to define specific measures to tackle the effects of the cost of living and housing crisis, on LGBTIQ+ people (AM 83 Rapp)

CA 8 - Paragraphs 18 and 19

Covered: AM 85 (Greens), AM 86 (Greens), AM 88 (EPP), AM 90 (Renew)

Fall: AM 87 (ECR)

18 a. (new) Welcomes the Commission's proposal for a Regulation on jurisdiction, applicable law, recognition of decisions and acceptance of authentic instruments in matters of parenthood and on the creation of a European Certificate of Parenthood to protect the rights of all children by ensuring that their parental ties, including particularly same-sex parents, established in one Member State are recognised in all EU Member States; asks the Commission to explore the potential of other legal bases in the Treaties, notably Article 19 and 21 TFEU, to ensure that marriages, partnerships, parenthood and family life of LGBTIQ+ persons is fully and unconditionally recognised by all Member States without discrimination and obstacles for free movement; (AM 85 Greens)

19. Welcomes the Commission decision of 15 July 2021 to start legal action against Member States for violations of fundamental rights of LGBTIQ+ people (AM 88 EPP); calls on the Commission to continue to monitor closely the implementation of EU law in the Member States and to launch infringement procedures in cases where the fundamental rights of LGBTIQ+ persons have been violated, on grounds of Article 2 TEU, the Charter of Fundamental Rights or secondary legislation, where applicable; calls on the Commission to recourse systemically to expedited procedures and applications for interim measures before CJEU (AM 86 Greens);

19 a (new) Calls on the Commission to ensure that Member States comply with the judgments of the CJEU and ECtHR, by addressing cases of non-compliance using the actions under Article 260(2) TFEU and the Rule of Law Conditionality Regulation, in particular on LGBTIQ+ persons and rainbow families crossing borders within the EU; (AM 86 Greens);

19 b. (new) Calls on all Member States to adhere to the Guidelines for Strategies and Action Plans to Enhance LGBTIQ Equality¹¹ as prepared by the LGBTIQ Equality Subgroup; (AM 90 Renew)

~~21. Urges the Commission and the Member States to adopt measures to combat discrimination against LGBTIQ+ persons in the health sector;~~ (AM 94 Rapp)

22. Calls on the Member States to provide greater funding for the provision of services for victims of gender-based violence ~~services~~ and for them to support LGBTIQ+ victims, in particular LGBTIQ+ women, addressing their specific needs and experiences; (AM 96 Greens)

23. Recalls the need to ensure that facial recognition and profiling technology are guided by the principles of transparency, explainability, fairness, and accountability in order to address the biases and risks created for LGBTIQ+ people; (AM 97 Greens)

24. Calls for the EU to give access to asylum to LGBTIQ+ persons, including those from third countries classified as so-called safe countries; (AM 99 Renew)

24 a. (new) Calls on the European Commission to ensure support for LGBTIQ+ equality in action under the Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund, as announced in the LGBTIQ Equality Strategy 2020-2025, and include said support in the Work Programme 2023-2025; (AM 101 Renew)

24 b. (new) Calls on the European Union Agency for Asylum (EUAA) to swiftly finalise their practical guidance on applicants with SOGIESC and for Member States to then adhere to said guidance; (AM 102 Renew)

CA 10 - Paragraphs 25 and 26

Covered: AM 105 (Rapp), AM 106 (Rapp), AM 107 (Greens), AM 108 (S&D) partially, AM 109 (Rapp), AM 111 (Rapp)

Fall: AM 103 (ECR), AM 104 (EPP), AM 110 (ECR)

25. Calls on the Commission to monitor the impacts and fund CSOs and academic projects investigating the anti-gender movement, in order to effectively address it; (AM 105 Rapp)

25 a. (new) Calls on the Commission and Member States to draw from the empirical and systematic knowledge built by CSOs and academic researchers when designing policies and programmes to support LGBTIQ+ people in Europe and around the world; (AM 106 Rapp)

26. Calls the Union and Member States to recognise actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression and sex characteristics as bias-motivations (AM 109 Rapp); Calls on the Commission and the Member States to address hate speech, hate crimes and violence motivated by SOGIESC bias, including online; welcomes the Commission's initiative to extend the list of EU crimes in Article 83(1) TFEU to hate speech and hate crimes which would allow for establishing minimum rules concerning the definition of criminal offences and sanctions applicable in all EU Member States; highlights the need to ensure a robust EU criminal law response to hate speech and hate crime; strongly regrets that almost two years have passed since the publication of the Commission communication and that the Council has made no progress on it, even though it was able to swiftly expand the list of EU crimes for other purposes; regrets such inaction in the light of the increase in hate speech and hate crimes; reiterates its call on the Council to work diligently towards a consensus so that the Commission can initiate the second stage of the procedure; (AM 107 Greens, AM 108 S&D);

26 a. (new) Urges the European Commission to take forward a programme of work to raise awareness and encourage the reporting of SOGIESC bias motivated hate crimes; urges the European Commission and Member States to ensure police and judicial officers receive training on LGBTIQ+ issues, to better support LGBTIQ+ people and adequately investigate and prosecute cases of hate crimes. (AM 111 Rapp)

CA 11 - Paragraphs 27 to 29

Covered: AM 112 (S&D), AM 113 partially (EPP), AM 115 (Rapp), AM 116 (Renew), AM 117 (Renew), AM 147 (S&D)

Fall: AM 114 (S&D)

27. Calls on the Commission to explore the EU legal framework and the possible avenues that could be followed to counter and ban conversion practices at EU level, and to push Member States to ban 'conversion practices' on the grounds of SOGIESC; (AM 112 S&D)

28. Calls for a ban on genital mutilation, in particular intersex genital mutilation and female genital mutilation;

28 a (new) Calls on Member States to continue to exchange best practices on safeguarding the fundamental rights of intersex children; (AM 113 EPP)

29. Calls for a ban on forced abortions and on forced sterilisations; underlines the importance of LGBTIQ+ persons' right to self determination, autonomy and physical and mental health; (AM 115 Rapp) Underlines that the position of the Parliament on the proposal for a directive on combatting violence against women and domestic violence includes adding FGM, IGM and forced sterilisation to the so-called Eurocrimes; (AM 147 S&D)

29 a (new) Calls on the Member States to recognise marriage and parenthood of same-gender couples for the purposes of exercising rights derived from EU law, as required by the Court of Justice of the European Union; (AM 116 Renew)

29 b. (new) Calls on the Member States to put in place accessible legal gender recognition legislation and procedures, with support of the Commission; (AM 117 Renew)
