

Question for oral answer O-000000/2025
to the Council

Rule 142

Antonio Decaro, Lídia Pereira, Annalisa Corrado, Mathilde Androuët, Alexandr Vondra, Emma Wiesner, Pär Holmgren, Catarina Martins, on behalf of the Committee on the Environment, Climate and Food Safety

Subject: UN Climate Change Conference 2025 in Belém, Brazil (COP30)

To achieve a COP30 outcome that meaningfully advances the agenda on mitigation, adaptation, finance, and loss and damage, the EU must strengthen its climate diplomacy. What action is the Council taking to ensure that the COP30 Climate Change Conference in Belém concludes with significant progress in particular in relation to:

- raising the collective ambition in Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs) in line with the goals of the Paris Agreement;
- mobilizing climate finance by the public and private sectors towards the goals agreed at COP29, including through innovative financing schemes and equitable burden-sharing mechanisms;
- implementing and further strengthening the commitments and actions agreed in the first Global Stocktake (the UAE Consensus).

Submitted: 00.0.2025